Director of Economic Inclusion

The organization

The New Hampshire Community Loan Fund, a community development financial institution founded in 1983 and based in Concord, N.H., is nationally recognized as an innovator in the field of community development finance and has a rich history of providing access to capital to achieve home ownership, business growth, climate solutions, sustainable agriculture, child care, and cooperatives that secure and protect access to affordable housing.

Diversity, equity, and inclusion have always been integral to our success. We are an Equal Opportunity Employer, and our employees are people with different strengths, experiences, and backgrounds who share a passion for improving people's lives.

We are growing our staff to meet the needs of the state's people, businesses, and communities.

The opportunity

The Director of Economic Inclusion works within our Business and Community Finance team to design, promote, and implement strategies to support an inclusive economic recovery and sustain long-term economic growth. They identify potential business and nonprofit loan prospects and shepherd them through the lending process, analyzing financial information from various sources to determine applicants' viability and risk.

The person in this position supports businesses by providing 1:1 service, facilitating workshops, and connecting them with resources and opportunities within the region's entrepreneurial ecosystem. They are responsible for development activities and assisting the Senior Vice President of Lending, commercial lenders, with team goals, budgeting, managing, maintaining, and developing systems as directed.

The successful candidate will be entrepreneurial and organized, with excellent collaboration, communication, and conflict-resolution skills. Bilingual fluency is preferred.

We offer a hybrid work plan that combines remote work with time in our Concord office.

Starting salary is $82,500 with comprehensive benefits.
